

Dudley Mitchell, DIRECTOR

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science -
University of Tennessee

Dudley Mitchell serves as Director of Panattoni Development Company. His responsibilities also include the oversight of the company's European and Canadian development operations.

Immediately prior to his current role, Dudley served as CEO where he was responsible for overseeing the acquisition, development and management of Panattoni's operations in the United States. Dudley also serves on Panattoni's Executive Committee.

Dudley's first role at Panattoni was Regional Partner for the Southeast region. In this capacity, he was responsible for overseeing the development of over 8 million square feet of development within the Southeastern United States.

Prior to joining PDC, Dudley worked as a Partner for Trammell Crow, where he was responsible for the development of over 1 million square feet of build-to-suit projects and over 1.5 million square feet of speculative industrial space.
