

Phil Larger

Partner

Education

Master of Business Administration -
The Ohio State University

Bachelors of Science in Business Administration -
University of Colorado at Boulder

Phil Larger has more than ten years of experience in acquisitions, dispositions, and development across multiple markets. As a partner in Columbus, he oversees Panattoni's activity in the region and uses his deep roots in Columbus to help guide site selection, market strategy, and local partnerships.

Phil has led teams responsible for evaluating new markets, shaping investment criteria, and driving portfolio growth. He works directly with brokers, owners, capital partners, and internal teams to move projects from initial review through execution.

Before joining Panattoni, Phil was Managing Director of Investments at Altus Properties in Denver and Columbus. He managed all acquisitions, dispositions, and developments in the firm's core markets, including Minneapolis, St. Louis, the Front Range of Colorado, and Columbus.